Britannica School Elementary Scavenger Hunt

Greetings Explorer! You are about to embark on an important journey to discover Britannica School. Before you get started you need a few survival materials. Make a check mark in the box if you have the material ready to go:

- writing tool to record your answers
- computer or tablet
- headphones

Your mission is almost here, and you are about ready to begin. You just need your map. Go to school.eb.com (this will act as a map for your adventure and is where you will find all of your challenges).

Choose the Elementary level and begin your hunt! Good luck, young explorer!

The Elementary home page is a mysterious place full of interesting facts, and it is your mission to track them down.

1. How many groups of animals are there in the Britannica's "Animal Kingdom?" _____

2. In your own words, what is a mollusk?

You have passed the first challenge of your scavenger hunt! Good work! Can you handle the next level? Let's move on!

Find the search bar at the top of the page and type the word "elephant." Click to enter the elephant article- if you dare!

3. Name the three species, or kinds, of elephants:

_____ , _____ , _____

Knowing the right article tools to use in Britannica School will be the key to completing your mission!

4. Somewhere on this page is a button that allows Britannica School to read the article to you. Find this button and draw it in the space below:

5. You have earned a bonus tool! Find the word “herd” in your elephant article. Double-click on the word, and voilà, you get the Quick-Click Dictionary. Write the Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary definition of “herd.”

6. Why do you think the Quick-Click Dictionary is available in Britannica School?

You are about to leave this article and continue your journey. But before you do...

7. Find another tool on this page and draw it in the space below:

8. Think of a situation where you would need to use the tool you drew above. Explain that situation:

Elementary Scavenger Hunt

Nice work! Your journey continues on the Elementary home page. To get there, click the word “Elementary” at the top of the screen.

Do you see that little drawer that keeps popping up at the bottom of the page? It is calling your name! Find “Geography Explorer,” then put on your headphones. You are
